

THE PALLID MAN QUAILS.

It Was "Up to Him" and His Soul Was Filled with Terror But He Escaped.

"It is up to you, now." The pallid man turned more pallid, and glared wildly around for an avenue of escape. Pennsylvania avenue or any other old avenue. They were closed.

"It is up to you, now." The pallid man wondered why Prof. Osborne, after convicting Molinoux, had come down to Washington post-haste on the Congressional Limited to prosecute him. It had been "up to Corliss." Now it was up to him. He thought of his crimes, and his knees shook in a manner that would make Zazie turn green when she shakes her bawled wrists after chewing up 13 sofa pillows and one soft couch ($4.89, reduced).

"It is up to you, now." The pallid man recalled his last murder. It was a dark night. The place, Long bridge. The hour, midnight. As he had thrown his writhing victim, a young and beautiful maiden, tied in the sultan's specially prepared Bosphorus bag, the piercing shriek the dying young creature shrieked haunted him still. And now they were hunting for him.

"It is up to you, now." "For God's sake! What?" "Your necktie. Up to your chin, your ears and the rim of your remaining locks on the rear fire escape of your billiard ball. Pull it down."—Washington Star.

Getting At the Facts.

Wife (after the honeymoon)—Why did you deceive me about your income? Husband—I didn't, my dear. "Yes, you did. You told me you were getting $50 a week when you asked me to marry you." "You evidently misunderstood me. I said my position was worth $50—and so it is—but for some reason best known to the boss he gives me only ten dollars."—Chicago Evening News.

Physical Reaction.

Brown—How do you feel about Sunday golf? Jones—Don't tell that I said so, but I have heard sermons so long lately that they made me want to go out and take a whack at something.—Indianapolis Journal.

FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

Summary of Leading Events.

Washington, April 6th.—Senate—Deboe, of Kentucky, gave notice he would move to refer the credentials of J. C. S. Blackburn, as a senator, to the committee on privileges and elections. The Indian appropriation bill was considered. Sullivan, of Mississippi, spoke in favor of seating M. S. Quay.

House—Passed by a vote of 120 to 28, the substitute for the senate bill, providing for a territorial form of government for Hawaii, also authorized bridge across Red river at Alexander, by the Shreveport and Red River Valley R. R., and create the northwestern division of the northern district of Georgia.

Washington, April 7th.—Senate—Amendment to Indian appropriation bill, by Jones, of Arkansas, providing for continuance of the employment by the government of the central Indian schools, under certain circumstances. The whole question of sectarian schools was considered, taking a wide range.

House—Tribute was paid to the memory of the late Richard Parks Bland, of Missouri, who was a member of the house for 26 years, and as a further mark of respect the house adjourned.

Washington, April 9th.—Senate—Indian appropriation bill passed without division. It carries $8,414,000; other bills passed. Foard county, Texas, attached to the Fort Worth division of the northern judicial district of Texas; to create the northwestern division of the northern judicial district of Georgia.

A resolution called upon secretary of interior for information as to irrigation of the Pima Indian reservation in Arizona was adopted. The debate for a vote on the seating of Mr. Quay could not be agreed upon. The Alaskan civil code was under consideration for two hours.

House—Agricultural appropriation bill was made the vehicle of considerable debate on irrelevant political topics, but good progress was made, 25 of the 37 pages being covered.

Washington, April 10th.—Senate—Without objection it was agreed to take final vote on the right to seat M. S. Quay as senator from Pennsylvania, Tuesday, April 24th, at 5 p. m. Eulogies was pronounced on Richards Parks Bland, the dead statesman, which were notable for earnestness and eloquence.

House—Agricultural appropriation bill passed substantially as reported. Mr. Corliss maintained that government distributions invaded private fields of enterprise. His various amendments failed after extended debate. Amendment was adopted, increasing the supply of "farmers' bulletins" issued by the agricultural department.

Washington, April 11.—Senate—The Pacific cable bill was passed. It appropriates $3,000,000 for the construction by the navy department of a cable from San Francisco to Honolulu. During the rest of the session the District of Columbia appropriation bill was under consideration, and was finally passed. It carries nearly $8,000,000.

House—All the senate amendments to the Porto Rican bill were agreed to and the measure passed by a vote of 161 to 153. It provides for the shipments of all goods from Porto Rico into the United States free of duty and certain food-stuffs from the United States can enter Porto Rico on the same terms, all others paying a duty of 15 per cent.

UNION MEN ALL OUT.

The Merchants' Loan and Trust Building in Chicago to Be Turned Into a Fortress.

Chicago, April 12.—Contractors at work on the Merchants' Loan and Trust building, at Clark and Adams streets, are planning to convert the new skyscraper into a huge fortress. All the union men employed on the building have either struck or have been discharged in the last two days, and efforts of the contractors to finish the building inside of the stipulated time (May 1) with non-union men have, it is considered, practically made the work a test of the strength of the contractors and labor unions in the present labor crisis in Chicago.

At present all the doors and windows of the building are barricaded, and the structure is guarded by a large force of policemen and private detectives. The contractors say that a large force of non-union men will be put to work on the building at once, and sleeping and eating accommodations will be provided for them inside the building, in order to prevent clashes with union men.

Explosion in Havana Harbor.

Havana, April 12.—About 12 o'clock at night an explosion occurred on board the German tank steamer Gutheil, Capt. Schroeder, from Philadelphia, April 5, which was anchored near Regla wharf waiting for cargo. The uproar aroused many of the inhabitants. The accident was due to a bursting boiler, which in turn led to the explosion of a large tank of oil. The vessel was not seriously damaged, but two of the crew were badly hurt.

Gets Seven Years and Six Months.

New York, April 12.—James D. Kellogg, the head of the E. S. Dean Co. was Wednesday sentenced to seven years and six months in the state prison.

Deaf Man Killed by Cars.

Huntsville, Ala., April 11.—W. T. Darrough, an aged blacksmith of Scottsboro, was killed by a freight train on the Southern railway, one mile from that town. Darrough was walking the track and being deaf did not hear the warning whistle.

Museum of Art and Archaeology.

Perkeley, Cal., April 11.—Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst has decided to establish a museum of art and archaeology at the University of California, illustrating the history of fine arts throughout the world.

HER ONE REQUEST.

The Only Remaining Thing That Was Necessary to Complete Her Happiness.

"Listen, my darling."

The youthful millionaire drew to his heart the beautiful girl who had promised to share his wealth and happiness, and in simple language began to recount what the future had in store for them.

"It has been my great wish," he said, "that you should have a home, not only commensurate with your position and my own, but one which will be a fit setting for your altogether sweet and delightful personality. And so for months now I have been engaged in a search after the best that money can buy, and the house I have had built especially for you is now complete throughout. Nothing has been omitted. Decorators and artists have bestowed their services, and all my resources have been taxed to provide our home with a suitable interior and with the most costly furniture. What do you say to this, my dear?"

"It is lovely," replied his betrothed, as she heaved a slight sigh. "There is only one thing more, dearest, that will make me completely and utterly happy."

"It shall be granted," exclaimed her enthusiastic lover. "Only tell me what it is."

"The girl at his side stirred rapturously. "How good of you!" she said. "I was only going to say that when we have moved into our new home I would like the privilege of furnishing it all over again to suit myself."—Life.

England's Armored Trains.

The magnificent armored trains used by England in her war with the Boers will transport her troops, protect bridges and telegraphic communications in about the same way that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters drives dyspepsia from the human stomach and then mounts guard that it does not return. The Bitters has won in every case of indigestion, biliousness, liver and kidney trouble for the past fifty years. It is invaluable at all times.

Not Intimate Enough.

Miss Mason—Excuse my ignorance, but ought I to call you Mr. Bones or Dr. Bones? The Doctor (irascibly)—Oh, call me anything you like. Some of my friends call me an old idiot.

"Ah, but those are only people who know you intimately."—London Tit-Bits.

HE LIKES WESTERN CANADA.

Duhamel, Jan. 24, 1900.

Dear Sir and Friend:

We had a lucky trip, made good connections and got to Wetaskiwin Monday afternoon, stayed there all night, bought a pony and saddle for the boy and hired a three-seated rig for the balance of us and got home to dinner next day: caught the boys cleaning up and getting ready to come after us. Wednesday the snow was all gone and we had bare ground and bright sunshine for a month, and it has been pleasant weather ever since. The ground is frozen about two feet and about six inches of snow—just enough for sleighing. We had one cold spell in December. The thermometer went down to 32 below zero; but we did not suffer with the cold at all. We have worked every day all winter, are all well and feeling well. Have built a log house 18x18, two log stables 16x18, and are now busy on a well. We have ten cows, three other cattle and six head of horses. The boys send their best respects to Mr. Huchison, and say they will talk to him enough to pay for not writing when he gets up here. Will write you again next Spring and tell you all about the Winter. We all unite in sending you and family our best wishes and respects and hope this will find you all well.

Yours very respectfully,

(Signed) THOMAS TATE.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

NEURALGIA

Is what Mrs. Archie Young of 1817 Oaks Ave., West Superior, Wis., writes us on Jan. 23d, 1900. "I am so thankful to be able to say that my SWANSON'S '5 DROPS' is the best medicine I have ever used in my life. I sent for some last November and commenced using it right away and it helped me from the first dose. Oh, I cannot explain to you how I was suffering from neuralgia. It seemed that death was near at hand. I thought one could be worse. I was so very weak that I hardly expected to live to see my husband come back from his daily labor. But now I am free from pain, my cheeks are red, and I sleep well the whole night through. Many of my friends are so surprised to see me looking so well that they send for some of your '5 DROPS'."

"I have been afflicted with rheumatism for 2 years. I was in bed with it when I saw your advertisement in a paper, recommending SWANSON'S '5 DROPS' very highly. I thought I would try it. It has completely cured me, but I like it so well that I want two more bottles for fear I will get into the same fix I was before I sent for '5 DROPS'." writes Mr. Alexander Futrell of Vandalia, Ark., Feb. 6th, 1900.

Is the most powerful specific known. Free from opiates and perfectly harmless. It gives almost instantaneous relief and is a positive cure for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Backache, Asthma, Hay Fever, Catarrh, La Grippe, Croup, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Nervous and Neuritic Headaches, Earache, Toothache, Heart Weakness, Dropsy, Malaria, Creeping Eruptions, etc., etc.

30 DAYS to enable sufferers to give "5 DROPS" at least a trial, we will send a 25c sample bottle, prepaid by mail for 10c. A sample bottle will convince you.
